

Archita Seal State Aided College Teacher M.A, B.Ed, M.Phil

Professor Archita Seal has a B.A in Political Science from Presidency University (1993) and M.A from Rabindra Bharati University (1995), a B.Ed from Rabindra Bharati University (1998), and a Mphil on the topic, “Women Empowerment: The Gandhian Way” in 2008.

Her areas of Interest are Political Theory, Gender Studies, International Relations and a 20 years experience teaching the same.

Publications and paper presentations:

Article: “Narir Khamatayan” at Inter-departmental journal of Social Science ‘Glimpses’.

Article: “Gandhir Chintadharay Purushtantrikata” at Journal ‘Mahila Mangal’ 2015

Article: “Socio-Economic Status of Tribal Women in India” at Inter-departmental journal of Social Science ‘Glimpses’

Paper Presentation “Ambedkar’s views on social equality” in Women’s College (2015)