

Rakhi Banik Asst Professor M.A, MPhil

Professor Rakhi Banik completed her B.A and M.A from Rabindra Bharati University (2001 and 2003). Her Mphil was from the University of Calcutta (2007) on the topic “ Urban poor and Municipal Services: Case studies in Kamarthi and Baranagar Municipality.” Her area of interests are Public Administration and local self government, Political theory, Gender Studies, Women studies, and International Relations.

She has been teaching since 15 years with more than 10 ISSN Journal Publications. Some of them are listed below.

Book:”Bharater Sanghbidhan o Sashanbyabasthar Pathaparikrama”, Progressive Publishers, Kolkata (ISBN No. 978-81-8064-246-3 2014

“Poverty Alleviation Programs and People’s Participation in Urban Area in West Bengal” (ISSN 2321-158X)

Article:”Naxalbad: Bharater Abhantarin Nirapattar challenge” at journal ‘Eai Samay’ 2008
Article:”

Saharer Daridra Durikaran Karmosuchi o angshagrahanmulak ganatantrik byabostha”at journal ‘Samaj jigyaasha’ ISSN 2321-158X 2013

Article:“Federalism in India: Situating the local governments” at Journal of Social Science and Welfare ISSN No. 2348-2974 Vol 2, 2015

Article:“Positive Attitudes for Women’s participation in Indian Electoral System at journal ‘Samaj jigyaasha’ ISSN 2321-158X 2013

Article:“Citizens Participation in Development” at Inter-departmental journal of Social Sciences ‘Glimpses’.